FULL-TIME FACULTY
BIBLE & THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

POSITION DESCRIPTION:
The Full-Time faculty for the Bible/Theology Department of William Jessup University is a position in New Testament studies responsible for quality preparation, instruction, and learning outcomes related to the study of the Christian Scriptures and their implementation in the lives of the students.

DUTIES:
1. Develop and support the mission, goals and objectives of the Bible/Theology Department.
2. Integrate into programs and courses the plans and goals of the Department and University.
3. Develop and teach a minimum of 12 units, 4 courses per semester for the Department and serve on at least two faculty committees.
4. Remain current with the latest developments of the discipline while pursuing scholarly research.
5. Provide academic advising and mentorship to Bible/Theology students.
6. Represent the program to outside collegiate and professional communities.
7. Collaborate with Department and other faculty in curricular and institutional development.
8. Collaborate with Advancement for Department marketing and outreach initiatives.

QUALIFICATIONS:
1. Demonstrated abilities in effective classroom teaching with considerable experience teaching the Bible in the college or university setting;
2. A Christian testimony that reflects a thorough and passionate integration of faith and learning;
3. Subscribed to the statement of faith for William Jessup University;
4. Ph.D. or its equivalent in New Testament and/or Biblical Studies;
5. The ability to teach and communicate using current learning technologies;
6. A preferred background in Restoration Movement Christianity, the heritage of the University.

WJU MISSION STATEMENT
WJU invites applications from individuals interested in joining our dynamic and growing University. WJU is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), the first accredited private university in the Greater Sacramento area. We seek to foster academic excellence and the development of mature Christian professionals for service to God and human kind in the world. The university is fortunate to have an outstanding faculty that provides a quality academic experience in a distinctively Christian and inclusive setting.

If you are interested in the position, please send a letter of intent specifying which position you are applying for, a resume, a statement about the integration of faith and learning that demonstrates your beliefs (1-2 pages), a personal testimony, transcripts, and a list of three references to:

Jon H. McFarland
Chair, Bible & Theology Department
William Jessup University
333 Sunset Blvd.
Rocklin, CA  95765
Phone: (916) 577-2265
Email: jmcfarland@jessup.edu; www.jessup.edu