Students are given opportunities to grow intellectually and spiritually through classes, chapel services, campus life programming, and spiritual formation group meetings.

It is the ultimate goal of Jessup to honor God and the teachings of Jesus Christ through every aspect of campus life. As such, students must agree with and honor the policies and regulations as stated in the Jessup Student Handbook, and Catalog, including but not limited to the following:

- Mandatory attendance to chapel services and spiritual formation group meetings for all undergraduate students.
- Unmarried cohabitation and/or any form of sexual misconduct is considered unacceptable behavior for students enrolled at Jessup.
- Students possessing, distributing, and/or using alcohol, narcotics, or other intoxicants, firearms, explosives or weapons (real or replicas) on Jessup premises or at University-sponsored activities will be subject to judicial action. William Jessup University reserves the right to confront behavior that is detrimental to the student, the community, the University, and/or others.
